MEMORABILIA

VOLUME 78

THANK YOU

To Mrs. Strang, Mr. Ricci, Mr. Garrity, Miss Hamilton, Mr. Bachant, Mr. Philbin, Mr. Hazel, and all of our former Elementary, Middle, and High School teachers who contributed to our education:
A mere thank-you is not enough
To show our profound appreciation
For the years you have given to us.
In return — we, the Class of 1991,
Dedicate this yearbook which symbolizes
Our innermost feelings.
— so simply said
— so deeply felt.

As we entered our "new" school, we got into the swing of things by electing Anne Despotopulos as President, Stacy Despotopulos as Vice President, Michelle Buote as Secretary and Barbara Jo Guinn as Treasurer. Our freshmen class advisors were Mrs. Lent and Mr. Willis.

Having heard so much about rallies, spirit week, and the tug of war, we waited with much anticipation to participate. The highlight of spirit week was the embarrassment we caused the senior class as we crushed them in the tug of war. We left freshman year with the thoughts of moving on to bigger and better things.

With the arrival of September, 1988, our rank changed from "dirt" to sophomore. That year we elected Craig MacMillan as President, Stacy Despotopulos as Vice President, Wendy McNally as Secretary, and Barbara Jo Guinn as Treasurer. We finally received the respect we deserved by accepting second place in interclass dramatics and once again finishing in first place in the tug of war. We owe our thanks to Mrs. Walsh and Miss Menegus for helping us through this transitional year.

JUNIOR YEAR '89-'90

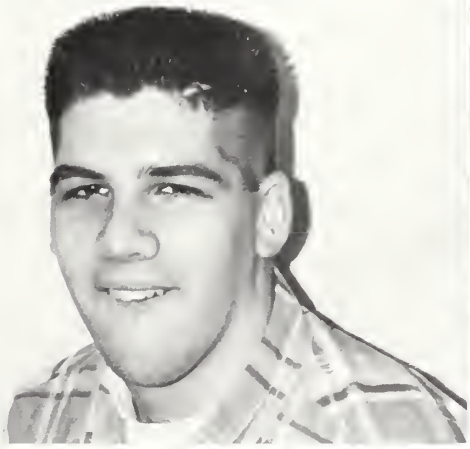
As we started Junior Year, we were excited to finally be upperclassmen. We elected Anne Despotopulos as President, Stacy Despotopulos as Vice-President, Wendy McNally as Secretary and Kendra Johnson as Treasurer. At Spirit Week we placed second overall and won the tug-of-war for the third consecutive year. The long awaited Homecoming arrived. We defeated Narragansett, which made the dance even more thrilling. The highlight of the year was our Junior Prom at the Royal-Plaza Best Western in Marlboro. This was another fantastic night as we danced the night away. We were anxious for our final year to begin.

SENIOR YEAR '90-'91

Little did we know what lay ahead of us when we re-entered the hallways to begin the final leg of our high school career. Realizing that this was our last chance to leave a mark in school history, we motivated ourselves to make this the best year of them all. We began by electing our officers: Anne Despotopulos resumed the Presidency; Stacy Despotopulos continued as Vice-President; Wendy McNally returned as our Secretary and Kendra Johnson was chosen as Treasurer. We soon realized that with our senior year came the responsibility of making decisions that would affect our lives after high school. The time moved quickly and before we knew it, deadlines for college and military applications came and passed. Those of us considering the work force started making plans for the future.

By the time our Senior Hop rolled around in March, we could see that the end was nearing. As the last of our exams ended and graduation practice was completed, we left with caps and gowns in hand on our most enjoyable day of school, our last one. The following week was filled with the traditional senior activities which we had anticipated for many years. Baccalaureate, our class trip, and banquet all set the stage for our final moment of glory. June 1, 1991, was the beginning of our transition to independence. On that day at our graduation, we accepted our diplomas with pride and fond memories of the times we had at CHS.

POSITION



Don't put off living until tomorrow.
Don't be afraid to dream some time away.
Don't look too far ahead,
don't look back with regret;
just look with hope
to the horizon of today.

Don't be afraid to reach for your goal,
no matter how distant it might seem.

And don't be surprised if you succeed.

The truly special people in this world,
are the ones who do the things
they really want to do.

Don't be one of the many . . .

I REMEMBER YOU

On the evening of Saturday October 28, 1989, we nervously entered our transformed cafeteria for our first formal dance. Our ballroom cascaded with pink and white streamers and balloons. D.J. Pat McIntyre played as we danced the evening away. Anxiety rose as we selected Jennifer Grady as the queen and Jesus Nater as the king. They led us in a dance to our theme song, "I Remember You." The night came to an end, but the memories will be forever.

FOREVER

After years of anticipation, the day of our prom finally arrived. Even the rain that fell earlier in the day couldn't dampen our mood. May 18, 1990, would be a special night for all of us. We gathered together at the Royal Plaza-Best Western in Marlboro and danced all night to the music of the Conte Brothers. Our theme was "Forever" by Kiss. This magical evening came to an end when we crowned Tammy Bailey as queen and Eric Davis as king.

SPIRIT WEEK — '90

We came, we saw, and we conquered Spirit Week. After four years of frustrations, the class of 91 easily surpassed the opposition in the 1990 spirit week competition.

Among our victories were, for the fourth consecutive year, the tug-of-war, boys' and girls' freethrow, percent participation on Green and Gold Day, Class Banner, attendance and the girls' obstacle course.

Our excitement rose when the final scores were announced, and we left the gym with the satisfaction that we finally were the "class" of this competition.

NEVER LET YOU GO

The last formal dance of our high school career was our Senior Hop. It was held on March 23, 1991, at the Town Hall. Our theme song, "Never Let You Go" by Steel Heart was supplied by D.J. Chris Culkeen.

The highlight of the evening was when Barbara Jo Guinn was selected as the queen and Matt McGuire was selected as the king.

The mood, the surroundings, and the company made this a night to remember!

During our four years as members of the International Club, we enjoyed various trips to Boston, New York, and Washington D.C. We also encountered various new experiences in art, music, and cultures.

To begin the 1990-91 school year, we elected Tom Nelson as President, Maria Rutkowski as Vice-President, and Megan Milewski as Secretary/Treasurer.

With almost no money in the bank, we sponsored fundraisers to garner enough money for our desired trips. We succeeded, made the trips, and gained much knowledge in the process.

As members of the International Club, each year we serve as host to an exchange student. This year, Tara Smith was our guest, and we helped ease her fears and nervousness with a reception at the Holder Memorial.

As we look back on our experiences with the International Club, we feel that we have broadened our horizons through these culturally enriching experiences.

Sophomore year we performed "Almost the Bride of Dracula" and captured second place honors for our efforts. Krissy Laaksonen received special recognition for her role as Dracula's mother.

Our senior year production was "Snowy White and the Seven Chicks". An all-female cast acted in roles that ranged from a compulsive neatnik to a gungho athlete and a flighty model. Each actress shined in her respective role, evoking plenty of laughter from the audience. Although our performance did not win, Loretta Lopez earned a Best Actress trophy and we all left our last competition satisfied with a job well done.

By the time we left the stage after finishing our junior play "How to Get Rid of a Housemother", we knew that our entry was good enough to win the competition. Though performing on stage was fun, nothing could match the feeling of hearing our play proclaimed "The Best".

During our four years at Clinton High, the All School Play was an important event we anxiously anticipated. Since our freshman days in Ducktails and Bobbysox, we have established ourselves as actors and actresses, and have formed lasting relationships with our fellow cast members and advisors.

We have performed a variety of shows from 60's musicals to country western plays. This year we performed an old west melodrama with villains, saloon girls, and cowboys.

As we look back and say goodbye, we would like to thank our teachers and advisors, especially Mrs. Lent, Mrs. Decesare, Mrs. Graham, and Mr. Colombo. We would also like to thank the underclassmen we leave behind for giving us lasting memories and friendships. Without the combined efforts of all these people our past performances would have been impossible.

GREEN AND GOLD

Put on your big green sweater,
With the big gold letter;
As we cheer those Clinton boys along!
Through the worst of weather,
We will stick together,
As we sing this merry song:

"All hail the Green and Gold!
Let Clinton's fame unfold.
We'll raise the banner to the sky,
for the honor of Clinton High!"

"As we go marching down the field,
We'll hold that line and never yield,
And then we'll fight to heights untold,
For dear old Clinton's Green and Gold!"

"GO GET 'EM GAELS!"

The 1990 Gaels football team finished the season with a disappointing record of 3-7. The young squad came back after losing seven in a row, although Ayer was counted as a victory because of the use of an ineligible player. We finished the season strongly winning two in a row by crushing Shepard Hill 30 to 0, St. Peter Marian 14 to 6, and on Thanksgiving the team led at the half before falling to St. Bernards 26 to 14. Pat McDonald and Eric Davis both were named to the Midland Wachusett Division C All Star Team.

Playing their final game for the Gaels were Patrick McDonald, Carmelo Sanchez, Todd Kennedy, John Flanagan, Todd Lindberg, Matt McGuire, and Eric Davis.

Despite a small number of participants and several injuries, the 1991 field hockey team was relentless and dedicated. The six seniors each displayed outstanding talent in their respective positions. Joanne Duggan, a Telegram and Gazette Field Hockey All-Star, was ranked number one goalie in the league for her goal-save average. Becky Belk was the sixth leading scorer in the league while Cindy McLaughlin placed ninth. Jeanne O'Toole helped support the team offensively, always feeding the ball back into the circle. As halfback, Daryle Janda demonstrated her skill with several powerful drives. Beth Belk proved to be a consistent player in the sweeper position as she helped block up the goal in every game. Coach Chewning's sincere devotion to the team will long be remembered even though the season has ended. Although we did not make a return trip to the Districts, the team maintained a respectable record of 4-6-6 for the season.

BOYS' SOCCER

Though it was an unfulfilled season, the boys' soccer team still managed to retain enthusiasm. They didn't win any games, but they gained experience.

For Keith Pupecki and Jeff West it was their last season in a Gaels' soccer uniform. Even though it was only Mark Hall's second year with this team, he was selected for the Mid-Wach. Division C All-Stars Team.

GIRLS' SOCCER

After two years of building the soccer program at the junior varsity level, the girls' soccer team was raised to varsity status. Under the guidance of our coach, Lois Thompson, we compiled a record of 4-13-1. Adding the talents of the many underclassmen to those of the juniors and seniors, the team showed great improvement over the previous years. We recorded our first varsity win after beating Assabet, 6-3, in our very first game. It was the last year for senior captains Stefanie Botko, Kendra Johnson, and Lynn Thompson, who began playing high school soccer in their freshmen year as members of a co-ed team. The other seniors were Missy Kobus, who transferred to soccer from field hockey after injuring her hand, and Tara Smith, an exchange student from Ireland.

VOLLEYBALL

The 1990 volleyball season was an encouraging one. With the team winning four out of its twelve games, it proved to be one of the most productive seasons in many years. As Carole Les, Barbara Jo Guinn, Wendy McNally, Loretta Lopez, Kim Collins and Tammy Bailey bid their last farewells, they were sad to leave, but happy with their accomplishments.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The Gaels had an impressive showing in the Mid-Wach League, ending with a record of 9-8. It was the final season for seniors Rick Jeffers, Todd Kennedy, Pat McDonald, and co-captain Tom Burton. The contributions made by these seniors, along with the talents of the underclassmen and the coaching of Tony Gannon all combined to produce the first winning record since 1986. For his outstanding play, junior Abel Hernandez was named as a member of the Mid-Wach League All Star Team. After the sudden death of former teacher, coach, and athletic director Ed Connor, the Gaels dedicated the rest of the season to his memory.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

What the girls' basketball team had hoped for as the season began was a winning record. What they achieved was far in excess of what anyone had expected.

The opening game was highlighted by Missy Kobus breaking the school's all-time scoring record as she edged past Tim Coyne. As the season progressed, the squad, under the direction of Coach Bernie Gaughan, began to win with ease. Winning their first nineteen games brought much attention to the team. The twentieth game on the schedule proved to be their downfall as they lost a close game to Narragansett.

Winning the Midland-Wachusett Division C title and being seeded second in the District Tournament were the dividends paid to this hard working club. Although their stay in the tournament was brief, losing to Bartlett in the opening round, they accomplished a record which no other girls' basketball team has reached.

Amongst all the excitement of their wins, Captain and Senior Missy Kobus dazzled her school as she accumulated 1,671 total points for her career on the girls' basketball team. Due to her excellent playing she was chosen as Midland-Wachusett League Most Valuable Player for the 1991 season. Along with Missy's award Meegan Garrity became an all-star in the league.

The seniors, Captains Missy Kobus and Cindy McLaughlin as well as Joanne Duggan and Lynn Thompson, could not have picked a better way to leave their mark on Clinton High School history than the glory that they gave to their school by their wonderful season.

The team received several awards at the end of the season. Missy Kobus was named to the Telegram and Gazette All-Star team, and the team itself was named runner up for the best sportsmanship in the Midland-Wachusett League.

BASEBALL

Although the 1991 edition of the baseball team didn't match last year's undefeated regular season record, it came very close. A record of 16-2, including a fourteen game winning streak, brought the Gaels their second straight Midland-Wachusett Division C title.

Many outstanding performances were the key to so successful a season. Zack Sawyer had a 7-1 mark for the year and finished with a .70 ERA. He also contributed the winning homerun in the bottom of the ninth against Narragansett and held Maynard to one hit while striking out sixteen. Pete McNally topped the team in batting with a .449 average. He also had the most hits and RBI's and a thirteen game hitting streak.

There were several other outstanding players including Corey Labree who excelled at catcher all year, Justin Labree who had a four for five day with five RBI's, Greg Henebry who had a five for five game while hitting for the cycle and driving in four runs and who had a 4-0 pitching record. Brian Bonin was also undefeated, going 4-0, and Dan Belliveau shined in his first varsity season. Sawyer, McNally and Henebry were named to the league All Star team, and Zack shared MVP honors.

The districts opened with Clinton seeded first and receiving an opening round bye. Their quarterfinal opponent was arch rival Nashoba Regional. Sawyer held them to two hits while striking out seventeen in a 10-0 shutout. He also received the news that he was selected by the Oakland Athletics in the amateur baseball draft.

The season ended in the district semifinal as the Gaels were held to five hits while losing to Auburn, 2-1.

The Lady Gaels achieved their number one goal of returning to the districts. They did it the hard way. After opening at 8-5, they won their last five games to qualify for the second consecutive year and third in the last four years. The end of the season win streak brought the team a third place in the Midland-Wachusett C Division.

The backbone of the team was the nine seniors, Stefanie Botko, Joanne Duggan, Billie Jo Gadway, Jen Grady, Daryle Janda, Kristin Janda, Missy Kobus, Kim Gebhardt, and Lynn Thompson.

Much of the final success of the season goes to Kristen McAuliffe who pitched flawlessly during the last five games. Clinton's hitting was the most important asset of the team with Meegan Garrity, Lynn Thompson, Kristin Janda, and Jen Grady ranking first, second, third,and fifth respectively in the league batting averages.

On May 31, 1991, the team faced Blackstone-Millville in the opening round of the district tournament. Even with a rain delay, the Lady Gaels could not be deterred. Trailing 8-7 going into the bottom of the seventh, Lynn Thompson led off with a double and Meegan Garrity slammed a homerun to left-center to lift the Gaels to a 9-8 win.

On June 6, 1991, Clinton's first trip to O'Gara Park in Spencer, the annual site of the semifinals and finals of district competition, ended with a 21-0 shutout at the hands of Oakmont Regional.

Coach Archie Cataldi

Though neither the boys' nor girls' track teams had a winning season, numerous individual victories helped to close the usually much wider gap in points against the competition. The boys' team, under the direction of Coach Cataldi, hurled, jumped, and sprinted their way to a couple of wins. With words of encouragement from Coach Chewning, the girls' team never gave up hope even when they were outnumbered. Both teams had members qualify for district competition this year. Junior Shellie Carlisle placed fifth in the shot put, coming very close to breaking the school record. Boys' captain Pat McDonald and newcomer Curtis Whitaker showed their talent for the sport by earning many wins for their team. Girls' captains Elizabeth Belk, Carole Les and Kendra Johnson, along with Jeanne O'Toole and Sherie Armstrong, showed their true team spirit by leading the team in desire and determination.

GOLF

Although the record of the 1991 edition of the golf team was not outstanding, their 6-10-1 mark leaves much optimism for the coming years. Junior Captain A.J. Lent, senior Michael Gorman, and junior Jason McNamara provided strong showings throughout the year. The continued improvement of Ed Piscia, Dennis Richards, Brian McIntyre, and Jeff Burgwinkel provides a promising future for these golfers.

The team finished in third place in the Midland-Wachusett League Meet, and Jason McNamara received a gold medal for the fourth best score in the Division C League Meet. Gorman, Lent, and McNamara also qualified for the State Individual Meet.

The tennis team completed their season accumulating an overall record of 2-10. This year the team was extremely competitive in all matches. They will be losing only three seniors, thus giving hope for a tremendous future. The team also sent representatives to the Districts. They were, in singles, Danielle Cormier, Tim Fadgen and in doubles Keith Pupecki/Jason Hall and Mark Hall/Todd Lindberg. Hall and Lindberg made it into the final sixteen before being eliminated by the fourth seed.

STUDENT-FACULTY NIGHT

On March 14, Clinton High School held its annual Student-Faculty Night. The evening began with the final round of the Intramural Volleyball Tournament. In the end, it was Mrs. Willett's team, the Spikers, who emerged victorious. Next came the interclass basketball games. In the first round, the Senior girls were defeated by the Sophomores, while the Juniors easily defeated the Freshmen. The Juniors then went on to beat the Sophomores in a closely played game. The Senior boys, however, had better luck. They defeated the Sophomores in the first round, and then the Juniors in the final round. In the faculty game, the high school teachers again defeated the middle school staff.

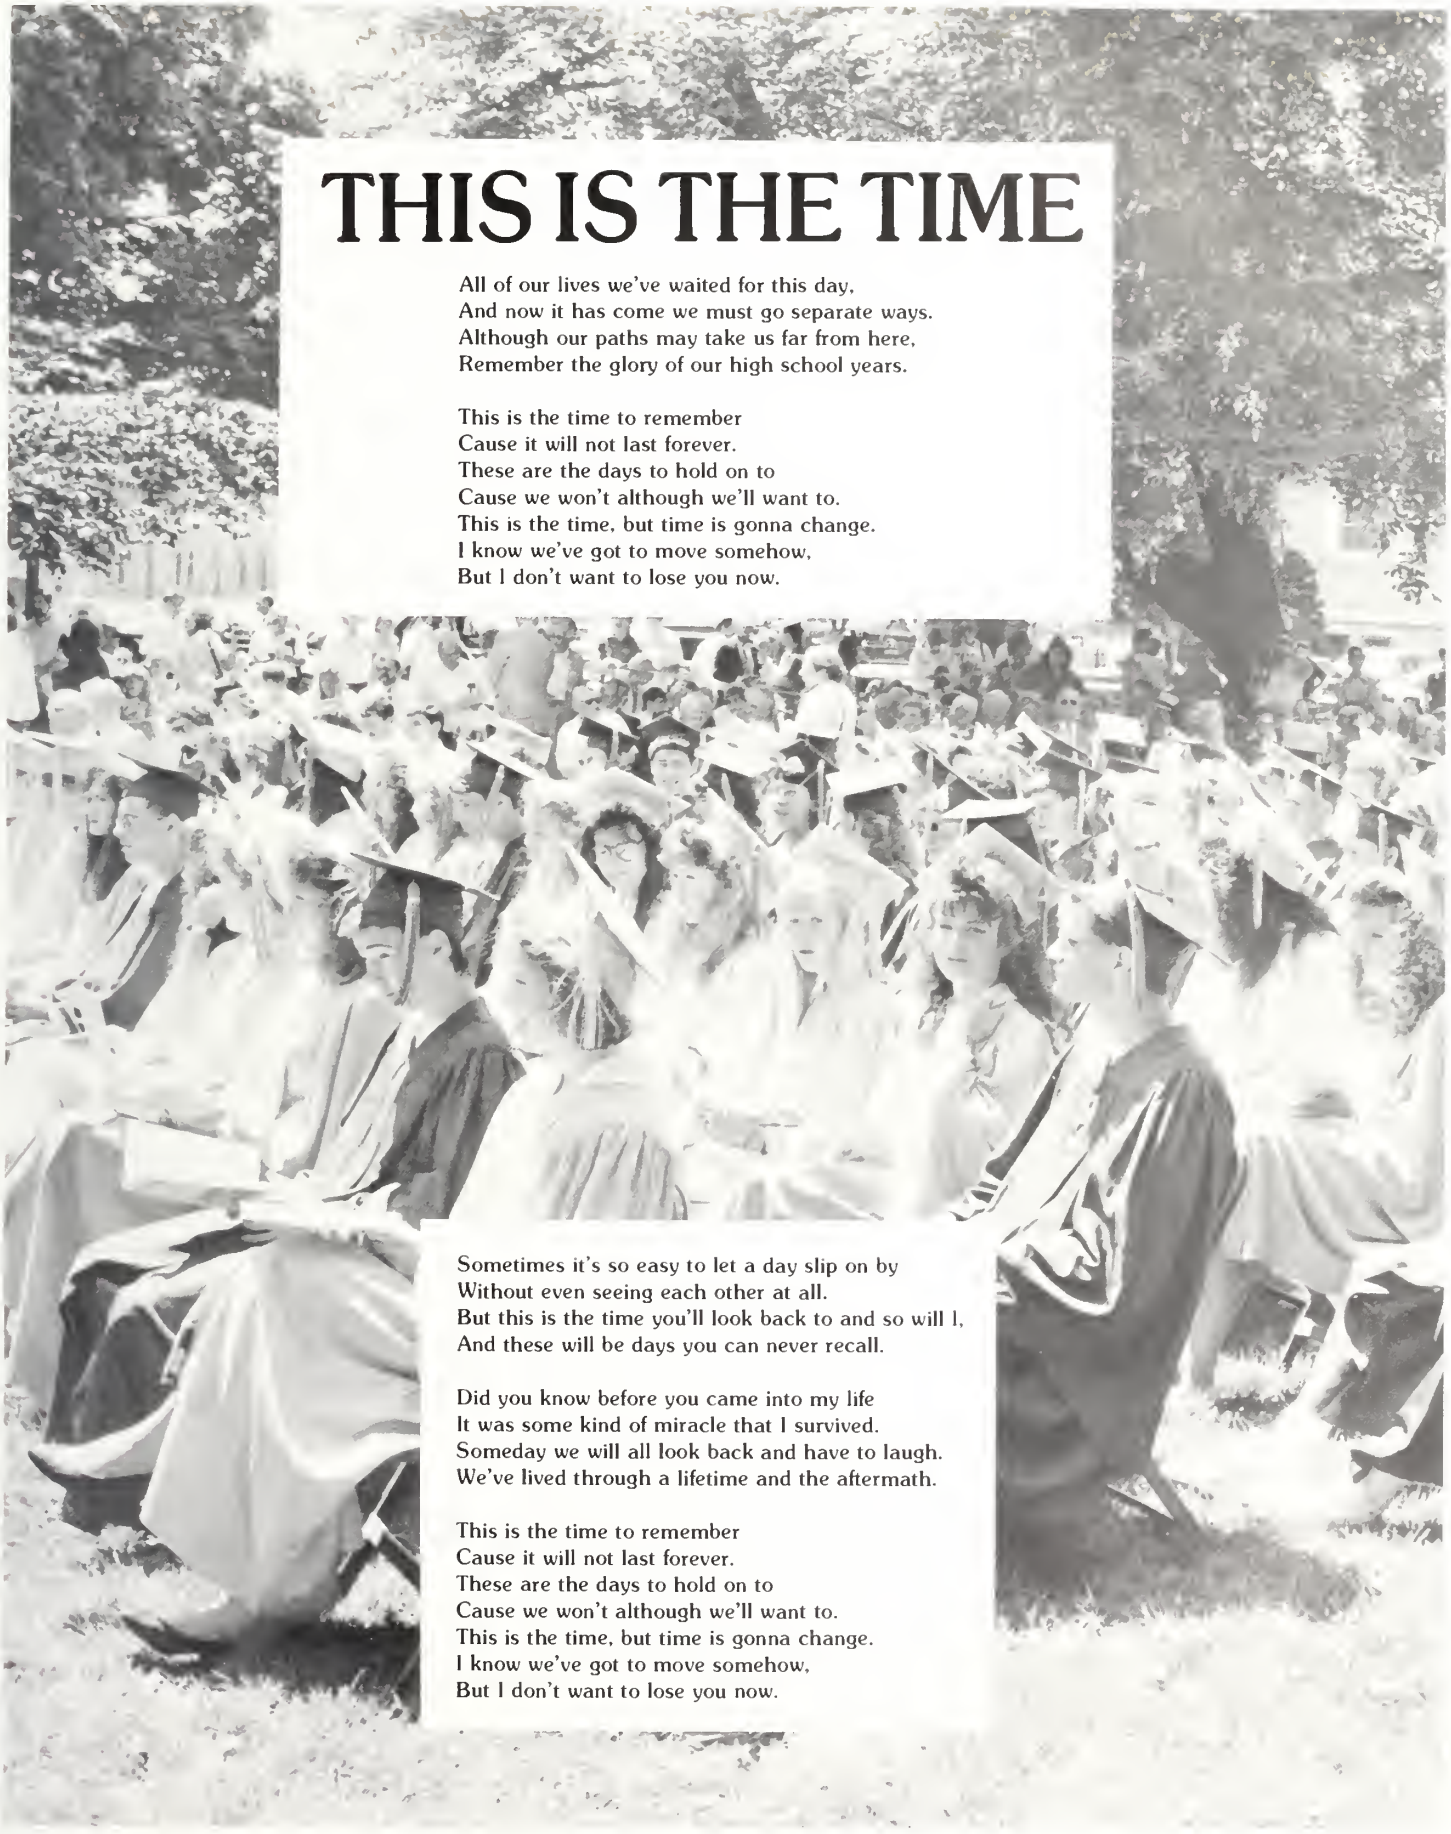
THE LAST DAY OF SCHOOL

It was over! Years of tests, quizzes, reports, and homework were completed. On Friday, May 24, 1991, our voyage through the Clinton School System came to an end. The journey had its ups and downs for all of us.

Although our years here have ended, we will take with us memories which will last a lifetime.



THIS IS THE TIME

All of our lives we've waited for this day,
And now it has come we must go separate ways.
Although our paths may take us far from here,
Remember the glory of our high school years.

This is the time to remember
Cause it will not last forever.
These are the days to hold on to
Cause we won't although we'll want to.
This is the time, but time is gonna change.
I know we've got to move somehow,
But I don't want to lose you now.

Sometimes it's so easy to let a day slip on by Without even seeing each other at all.
But this is the time you'll look back to and so will I,
And these will be days you can never recall.

Did you know before you came into my life
It was some kind of miracle that I survived.
Someday we will all look back and have to laugh.
We've lived through a lifetime and the aftermath.

This is the time to remember
Cause it will not last forever.
These are the days to hold on to
Cause we won't although we'll want to.
This is the time, but time is gonna change.
I know we've got to move somehow,
But I don't want to lose you now.

BACCALAUREATE

Baccalaureate was held on Tuesday, May 28, 1991, in Mitchell Auditorium. Unlike previous years when a member of the clergy would speak, Mr. David A. Hazel, our former principal, gave the address.

As we marched to and from the ceremony, we knew it marked the beginning of the end, but we looked forward to our last week together.

CLASS TRIP

Pleased with the prospect of a sunny day, we departed on May 29, 1991, for our journey to the Frank Davis resort in Moodus, Connecticut. With the swimming, boating, and other varied activities, no one had much time to be bored. We won several events during the day's competitions including the softball game, softball toss, wheelbarrow race, and the three-legged race.

After a plentiful chicken dinner, we watched the dance contest before being called to our buses. We left with many memories of the day and looked forward to our last two functions as a class.

CLASS BANQUET

On May 30, 1991, our traditional final social event was held in the Italian Center in Leominster. We dined and danced to the music spun by our D.J. Pat McIntyre.

We enjoyed the evening and the company knowing that it would be several years before our first reunion.

Returning to Clinton, we realized that our most important class function was just two days away.

GRADUATION

The words of our class song "This is the Time" by Billy Joel never sounded quite as good as they did on June 1, 1991. On that sunny day, the friends and family of 104 graduating seniors gathered in Central Park to see the Class of 1991 don their green and gold gowns and take the last step toward a new beginning. Class Valedictorian Lynn Thompson and high honor students Eileen Cowles, Joanne Duggan and Elizabeth Belk each took time at the microphone to offer a few last words before we were to be called to receive our diplomas. As all of the pomp and circumstance ended, so did our high school days and our time together as students.

We, the 1990-1991 members of the National Honor Society, being of supposedly sound mind and body, and free from inhibitions, complexes, or suppressed desires, do herein devise, bequeath, and give away free and for nothing, all our worldly goods to the following, deserving objects of charity, with the understanding that no goods may be exchanged by dissatisfied customers:

Barbara Jo Guinn leaves her tan to Miss H.

Carole Les leaves a string of broken hearts.

Eileen Cowles leaves . . .

Elizabeth Belk leaves as quietly as she came.

Jeffrey West leaves his calculus answers to Mr. Maattala.

Joanne Duggan leaves her nose guard to Mr. Gaughan.

Kendra Johnson leaves her laugh to Mr. Colombo and Mr. Garrity.

Lynn Thompson leaves as fast as she talks.

Mike Gormn leaves his Cliff Notes to the Honors Program.

Pam Santasania leaves as short as she came.

Stef Botko leaves her Interclass chest to Lynn.

Todd Kennedy leaves his Honor Society dues to Barb.

To the junior N.H.S. members, we leave our smidgets.

To the class of 1992, we leave college and scholarship applications.

To the class of 1993, we leave the privilege of being upperclassmen.

To the class of 1994, we leave wider hallways.

To the class of 1995, we leave directions to the elevator and student lounge.

To Mrs. Galeski, we leave a note of our whereabouts.

To Mr. McLaughlin, we leave a can of Lysol.

We leave Mr. Maattala searching for Made Simple Books.

We leave Mr. O'Connell in a physics world.

We leave Mrs. Willett a box of Kleenex.

The calculus class leaves with a take home test.

We leave Mr. Bachant in a moment of silence.

We leave Mr. Philbin with the date of next year's "Senior Skip Day."

FOR BECKY AND BETH, GRADUATION '91

So, now your childhood's over
Now you walk beyond my reach.
Now the love that brought you to us
Leads you on to write and teach
Others of the love that's shared
And will never pass away,
But follow you for lifetimes
Each and every day.

I am so proud of two sweet gifts
Who grew and now walk on
Enhanced by your depth of love
And challenge, so each one's song is heard.
Dad would burst his buttons
To see you two today.
Our love is in each breath you take
Each hope, each tear, each way.

Your family is so proud of you.
You learned your lessons well.
Now touch the world with loveliness,
And love, work, and dwell
Within yourself on what is right
And true and live it well.
So, hug the world! And by the way,
I'll still be here to help.

Love,
Mom
Matt and Drew

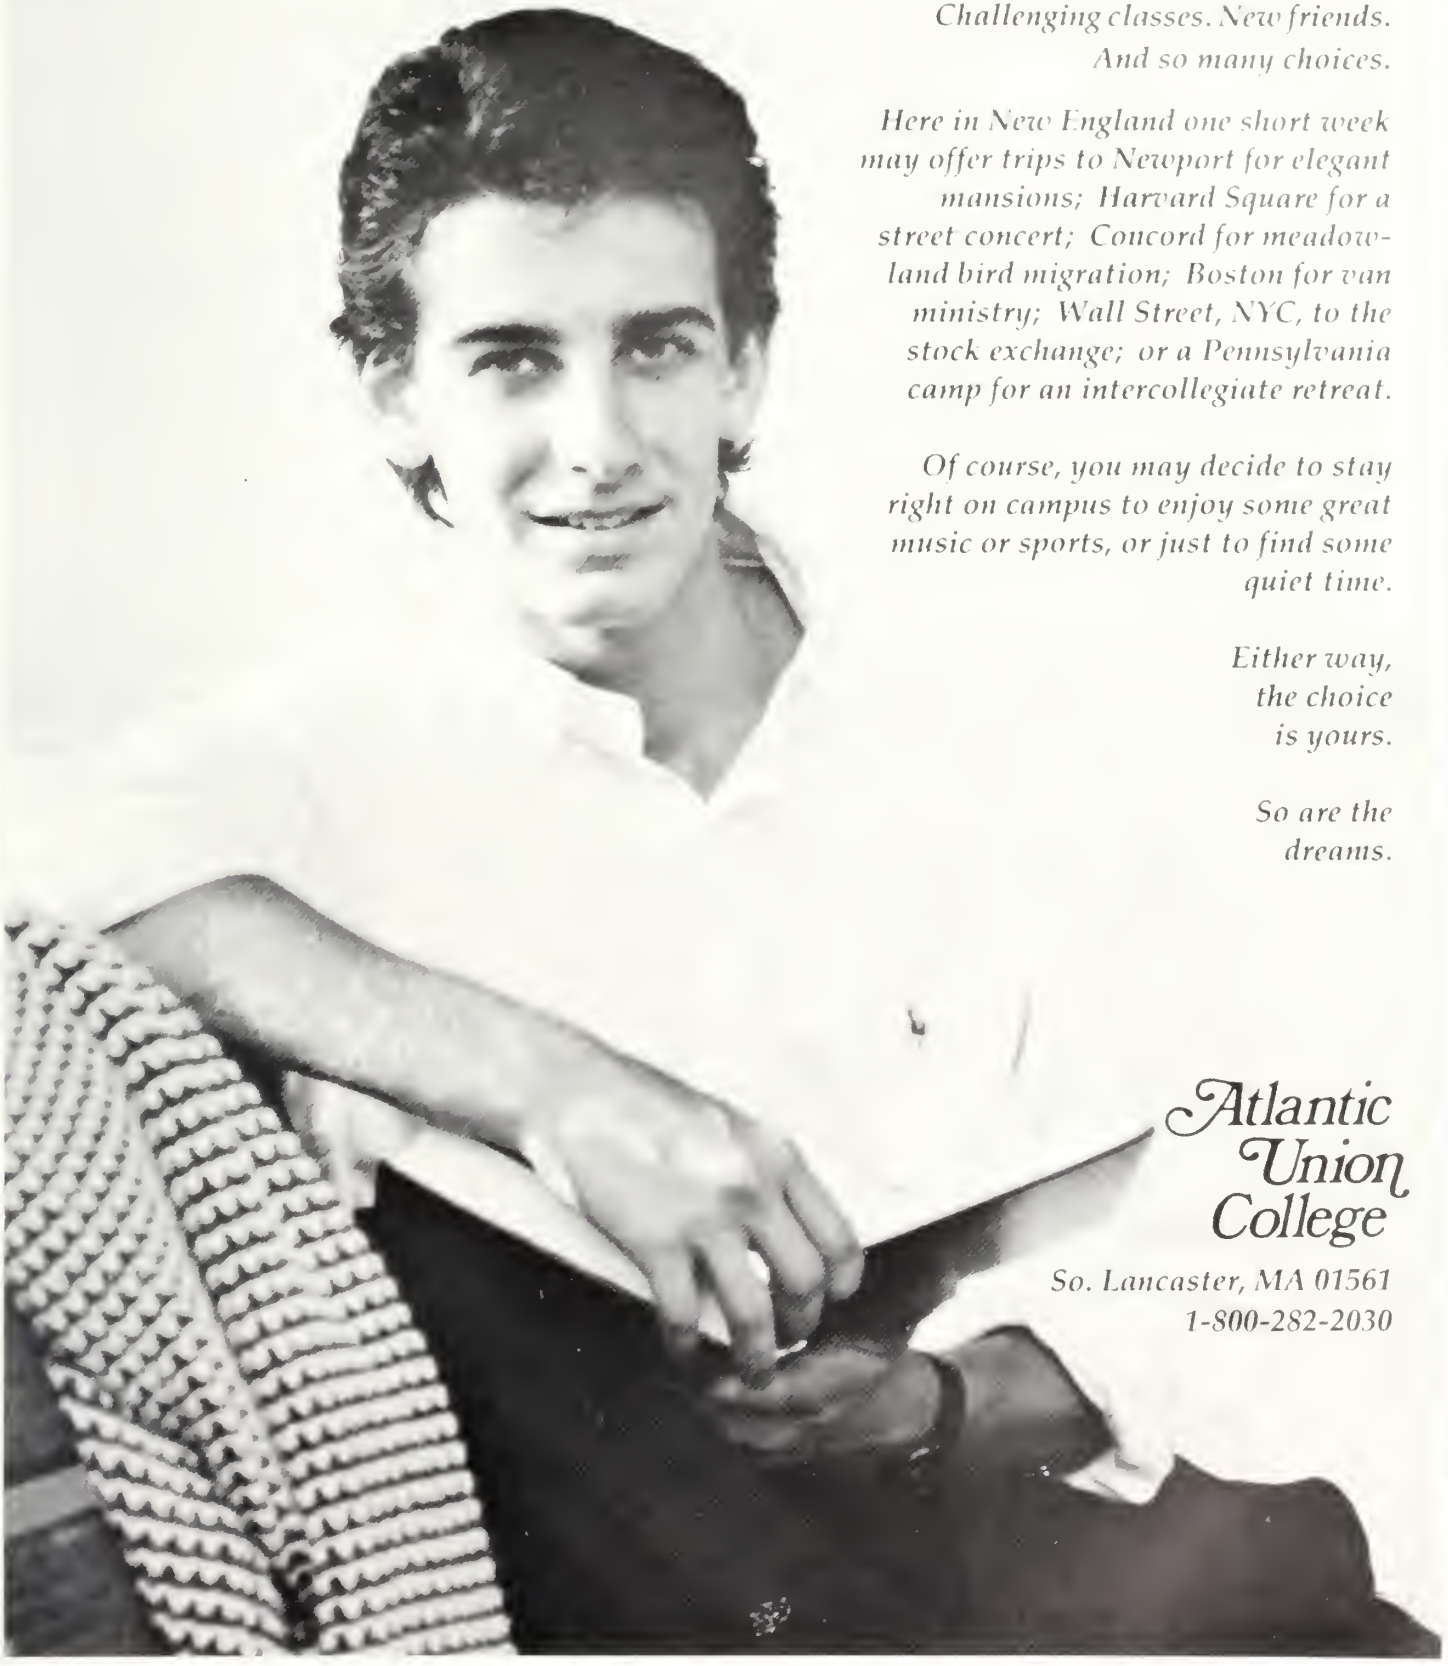
College. The Way You Always Dreamed It Would Be.



Challenging classes. New friends. And so many choices.

Here in New England one short week may offer trips to Newport for elegant mansions; Harvard Square for a street concert; Concord for meadowland bird migration; Boston for van ministry; Wall Street, NYC, to the stock exchange; or a Pennsylvania camp for an intercollegiate retreat.

Of course, you may decide to stay right on campus to enjoy some great music or sports, or just to find some quiet time.

Either way, the choice is yours.

So are the dreams.

To Matt.
Congratulations on your overall performance, both academics and sports. To the "King" from Terry, Aimee, Tim, Meg, Mom & Dad

To Jennifer,
We wish for you to be happy and to reach for the best. For what is happiness — if not to believe in and follow one's dream. We love you.
Mum, Dad, Debbie and Chris

We wish the Class of 1991 everything wonderful: be nch, prosper, and have all the success and happiness you desire.
Mrs. Strang and Mr. Ricci

Thank you, yearbook staff. You did a wonderful job. Your determiniation and perseverance will lead you to many more successes in the coming years.
